Program aims

The program aims to produce graduates who:

- are versatile and resilient musicians who individually and collaboratively create and perform music for a variety of practical settings and contexts
- think critically, creatively and ethically with cultural awareness when identifying and solving problems
- can effectively communicate to a range of audiences using a variety of musical and other discourses
- can plan, adapt knowledge and skills, and make independent and informed decisions in diverse cultural, practical, creative and academic contexts

- evaluate and apply methods, concepts, techniques and theories in the creation of musical and hybrid creative arts projects in a broad range of contexts
- research and analyse historical, ideological, critical and ethical perspectives in the creative arts, in both traditional and contemporary cultural and social contexts to explore the role music plays in ev

Required time limits

Students have a maximum of 9 years to complete this program.

Core courses

- Year 1, Sem 1: SCA1001 Persuasive Communication: Presenting Yourself and Your Ideas

Other program requirements

Students will need to supply their own instrument during the course of their study.

Articulation

Students undertaking aspects of degrees in the School of Creative Arts as an extension of TAFE studies, or through any of our current Articulation Agreements (such as the College of Creative Arts in Melbourne), are encouraged to visit the USQ Arts program listings for current advice on enrolments.

Exit points

Students who, for whatever reason, are unable to complete the Bachelor of Music and who satisfy all of the requirements may exit with a Diploma of Creative Arts (DCRA) or the Associate Degree of Creative Arts

Students may exit with the Associate Degree of Creative Arts (ADCRA) if they have completed a course as follows:

- A minimum of 4 SCA-coded Core courses from the Bachelor of Music and
- 12 other courses from the Bachelor of Music, with no more than ten Level 1 courses.

Credit

Credit will normally only be granted on the basis of formal studies of equivalent material undertaken at a college of TAFE, college of advanced education or university. Studies successfully completed within the last five years are automatically eligible to be used as a basis for a claim for credit. Studies completed more than five years ago will be considered, but should be accompanied by evidence that the knowledge and skills acquired from those studies have been maintained. Students who believe that they may qualify for credit should consult the Admissions Policy for further information about the content of courses and the procedures to be followed for credit claims.
