Program aims

The aim of this program is to provide students with the theoretical and practical knowledge and skills to their professional practice. Creativity and initiative are encouraged in engaging with issues that are relevant and meaningful to student's professional practice and workplace challenges.

Program objectives

On successful completion of the Graduate Certificate of Editing and Publishing, students should be able to:

- Identify and replicate the editor's role, together with their legal and ethical obligations, in all aspects of the editing and publishing industry including publication planning, design, production, marketing and project management.
- Develop and apply appropriate professional and interpersonal skills and apply rigorous principles of good writing across the publishing process.
- Critically analyse the evolution of the publishing industry and the suitability of language types for different publishing contexts.

Australian Qualifications Framework

The Australian Qualifications Framework (AQF) is a comprehensive system of qualifications offered by higher education institutions and secondary schools. It defines the type and complexity of knowledge, skills and competencies that a qualification has attained, and the level of achievement required to attain it.

This program is at AQF Qualification Level 4, which is designed for students with skills for professional or highly skilled work.

The AQF is a comprehensive system of qualifications offered by higher education institutions and training institutions. It defines the type and complexity of knowledge, skills and competencies that a qualification has been awarded that is consistent with the qualification type.

The full set of levels criteria and qualification type descriptors can be found by visiting www.aqf.edu.au.

Admission requirements

To be eligible for admission, applicants must satisfy the following requirements:

- completion of an Australian university three-year Bachelor degree in any recognised tertiary field or equivalent.
- English Language Proficiency requirements for Category 3.

All students are required to satisfy the applicable English language requirements.

If students do not meet the English language requirements they may apply to study a University-approved English language program. On successful completion of the English language program, students may be admitted to an award program.

Program fees

Domestic full fee paying place

Domestic full fee paying places are funded entirely through the full fees paid by the student. Full fees vary depending on the courses that are taken. Students are able to calculate the fees for a particular course via the Course Fee Finder.

Domestic full fee paying students may be eligible to defer their fees through a Government loan called FEE-HELP provided they meet the residency and citizenship requirements.
